

Strategic Plan 2016-2019

Central Highlands Integrated Family Violence Committee

Guiding Statement
We believe that no-one should live with violence and that all people should be safe, respected and valued.
Purpose
The Central Highlands Integrated Family Violence Committee provides specialist expertise and leadership to the family violence system.
Key Objectives
Identify and respond to priority issues and opportunities.	Drive practice change and innovation.	Influence positive change in attitudes.

Providing expertise and leadership to the family violence service system through:

Priority identification and strategic response | Drive for practice innovation | Positive change in attitudes

Initiatives to Address Key Objectives
Identify and respond to priority issues and opportunities.	Drive practice change and innovation.	Influence positive change in attitudes.
Establish a working group to guide information collection and analysis.	Establish a working group to drive practice change and innovation.	Establish a working group to drive behaviour change.
High Priority Develop a response to the RCIFV recommendations to position to Committee accordingly.	Support and promote project sin the Central Highlands region.	Implement a marketing communications strategy to drive change in the community. Raise awareness of the causes of family violence.
High Priority Ensure the CHIFVC 2016 Strategic Plan aligns with the RCIFV recommendations.	High Priority Implement CRAF training across the Central Highlands region.	High Priority Implement a communication strategy to engage family violence prevention networks across the Central Highlands region – use PSA report “Proposed Structure for Central Highlands Family Violence Committee and Networks”.
Implement key recommendations from the RCIFV relevant to the role of the CHIFVC.	Engage with key stakeholders across a range of sectors to increase family violence knowledge and promote a united voice to challenge the drivers of family violence.	Increase the voice of the Central Highlands Integrated Family Violence Committee on key committees, working groups and community events to influence attitudinal change within sectors and the broader community – use PSA report “Service Mapping”.
High Priority Service Mapping exercise and analysis.

Note: RCIFV Royal Commission into Family Violence
 CHIFVC Central Highlands Integrated Family Violence Committee
 PSA Principal Strategic Advisor
 Bold High priority objectives

Review date: March 2017